To Our Own Mr. Finke!

The 1973 Quit Qui Oc would like to honor a man of great help and understanding. We honor him not only as a teacher and a guidance counselor, but also as a coach. In his years at our school he has dedicated himself to making athletics a successful part of PHS. The class of 1973 would like to dedicate the 58th edition of our yearbook to "our own Mr. Finke". So, to you, Mr. Finke we say, "a job well done"!

REMEMBER:
the time you got lost your first day of high school
how superior you felt when you won the float and pep skit your first prom
how happy-sad you felt when you graduated
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the class you were in when you thought you'd never make it to the bathroom in time the teachers who got the "goat of the week" award the pails in the halls
the time you couldn't get your locker open because you forgot your combination
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the speech you made in class when you were so scared you knees hit the time you tripped up the stairs and thought you'd just die the time you dropped your lunch tray and everyone howled the day you got kicked out of the library because she was talking to you
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the good times at the Sentry Parking Lot the parties and parties and parties and parties . . .
your first musical your first Homecoming dance
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the eggs you threw at Falls
the year we were Conference Champs and Second in the State in Baseball the parade through town when we beat New Holstein the night the Panthers were channel 34 superstars
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the time we sat in the rain to watch the Homecoming game we knew we were going to win and did the time we went riding with Joe and Kay in the "surry with the fringe on top" how The Rain, The Park, and Other Things was one of the best things that ever happened to the class of '73
the Mexican Hat Dance at Sadie Hawkins
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the good times
the bad times them me, most of all
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

REMEMBER:
the Panther
orange and black Plymouth High
as best as you can
FOR YOU SHALL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Barb Huebner, President; Carol Kohlman, Treasurer; Dan Joslyn, V. President; Katie Kohlbeck, Secretary.

Dear Classmates,

We all have our own individual philosophy of life, even if we are not always aware of it, Most groups of people who share a common interest or a common goal share at least some of the same philosophies.

If the Class of '73 has a philosophy common to the entire bunch of us, I think it can be summed up in two words, "Keep laughing."

For we have been together for four years, and in that time there have been few occasions at which we could not laugh. We have had many chances to laugh, sometimes as a class and sometimes as individuals, at school activities. Football championships, basketball trophies, freshman class parties in the gym, senior parties anywhere we can find them . . . we have laughed together at all of them. We have been lucky.

I doubt that we will ever quit laughing, but I have no doubts that we will also be able to succeed in the serious world as well. The laughter and the memories of fun will still be there.

Good luck to all of you, and keep laughing.

Dear Friends,

I would like to start my last message to you with a big THANK YOU! I have to thank you for the efforts you made before I could come to your community and the efforts that all of you made during my stay. And I also give all my thanks to my family, the Lammers, who accepted me as a third son. My friends, you see there are so many people I have to thank, but nevertheless I want to give my special thanks to the A.F.S. Committee, the A.F.S. Club, and all the other organizations which raised money and made it possible to invite an exchange student.

Before I came to America I was afraid about the new community, the new school, and of course about all the new people. But then I almost would not believe it; it was so easy for me to become familiar with all the new expressions and experiences — because of you! I remember the first days in school when I went through the halls, students I never had met before said, "Hi, Wolfgang!" When I went downtown people that I did not know said, "Hi, Wolfgang!" You can imagine I was overwhelmed; but my friends, believe me, these nice gestures make it easy for an exchange student to forget all the doubts he can have before he comes to a foreign country.

A lot of you showed me what America was like — who ever of you will come to Germany or only to Europe, come to Berlin. Then I can show you what my country is like. But I also know that I will probably never see a lot of you again, but be sure I'll forget no face, no name, no event!

I say good-bye to the nicest and kindest community of the United States.

Auf Wiedersehen,

Wolfgang Gerd Florian

I started teaching instrumental music at Plymouth in the fall of 1943. At that time I began band students in the fifth grade. After school hours I also started beginners from the Catholic and Lutheran schools. There were around ten or so band members that greeted me at the first high school band practice. By the start of the second semester the band had increased to sixty-four members.

The following fall I started helping Coach Finke with football and continued doing so for about six years, until Mr. Mangan came to our system and was hired as assistant coach.

Mr. Pahr was hired as grade school instrumental instructor, which left me with band work in the high school.

We have had very fine bands at Plymouth and many of the students continued on in music after high school.

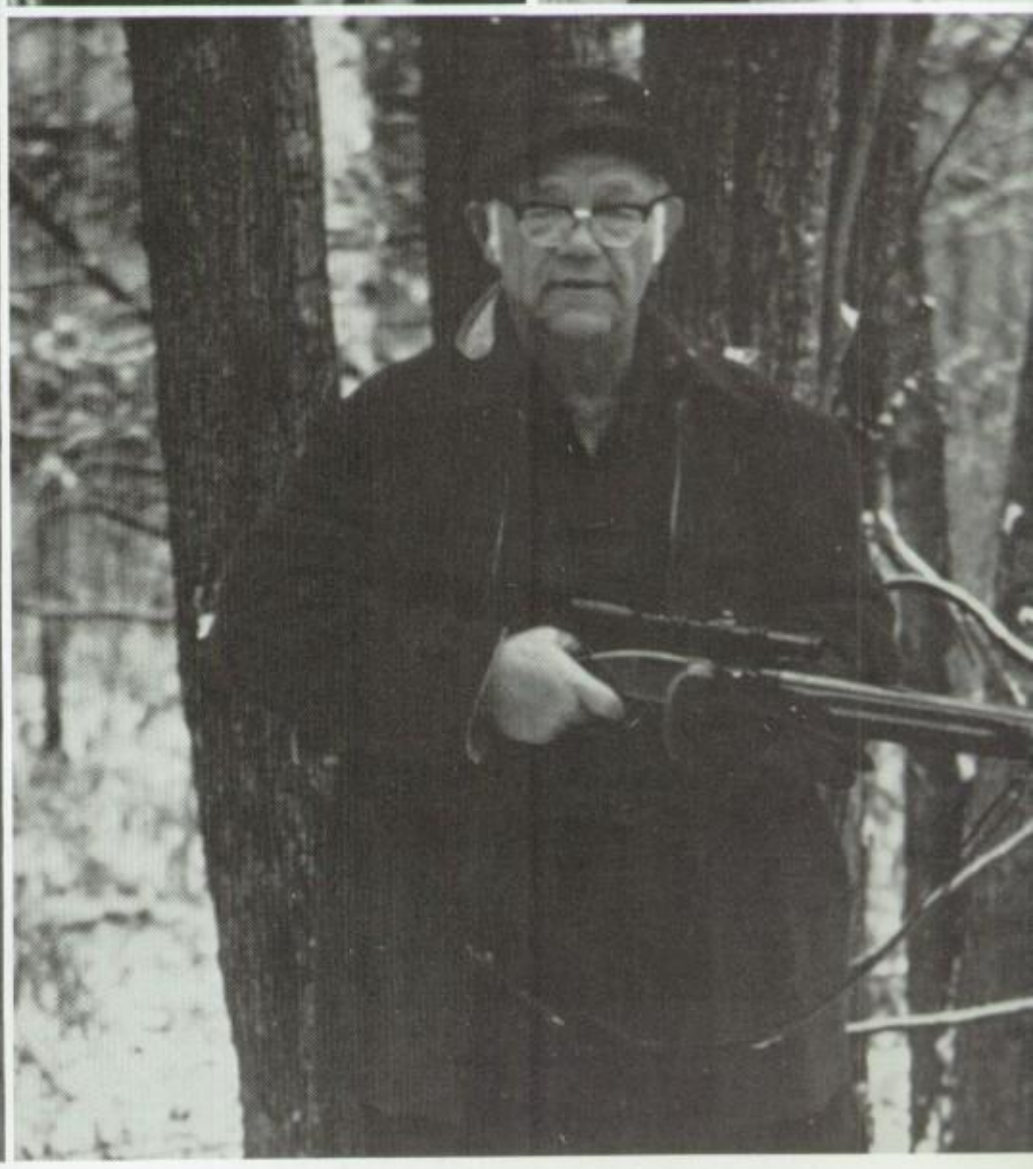
I directed the Plymouth Citizens Band for about twenty-eight years and the Borden Chorus about ten.

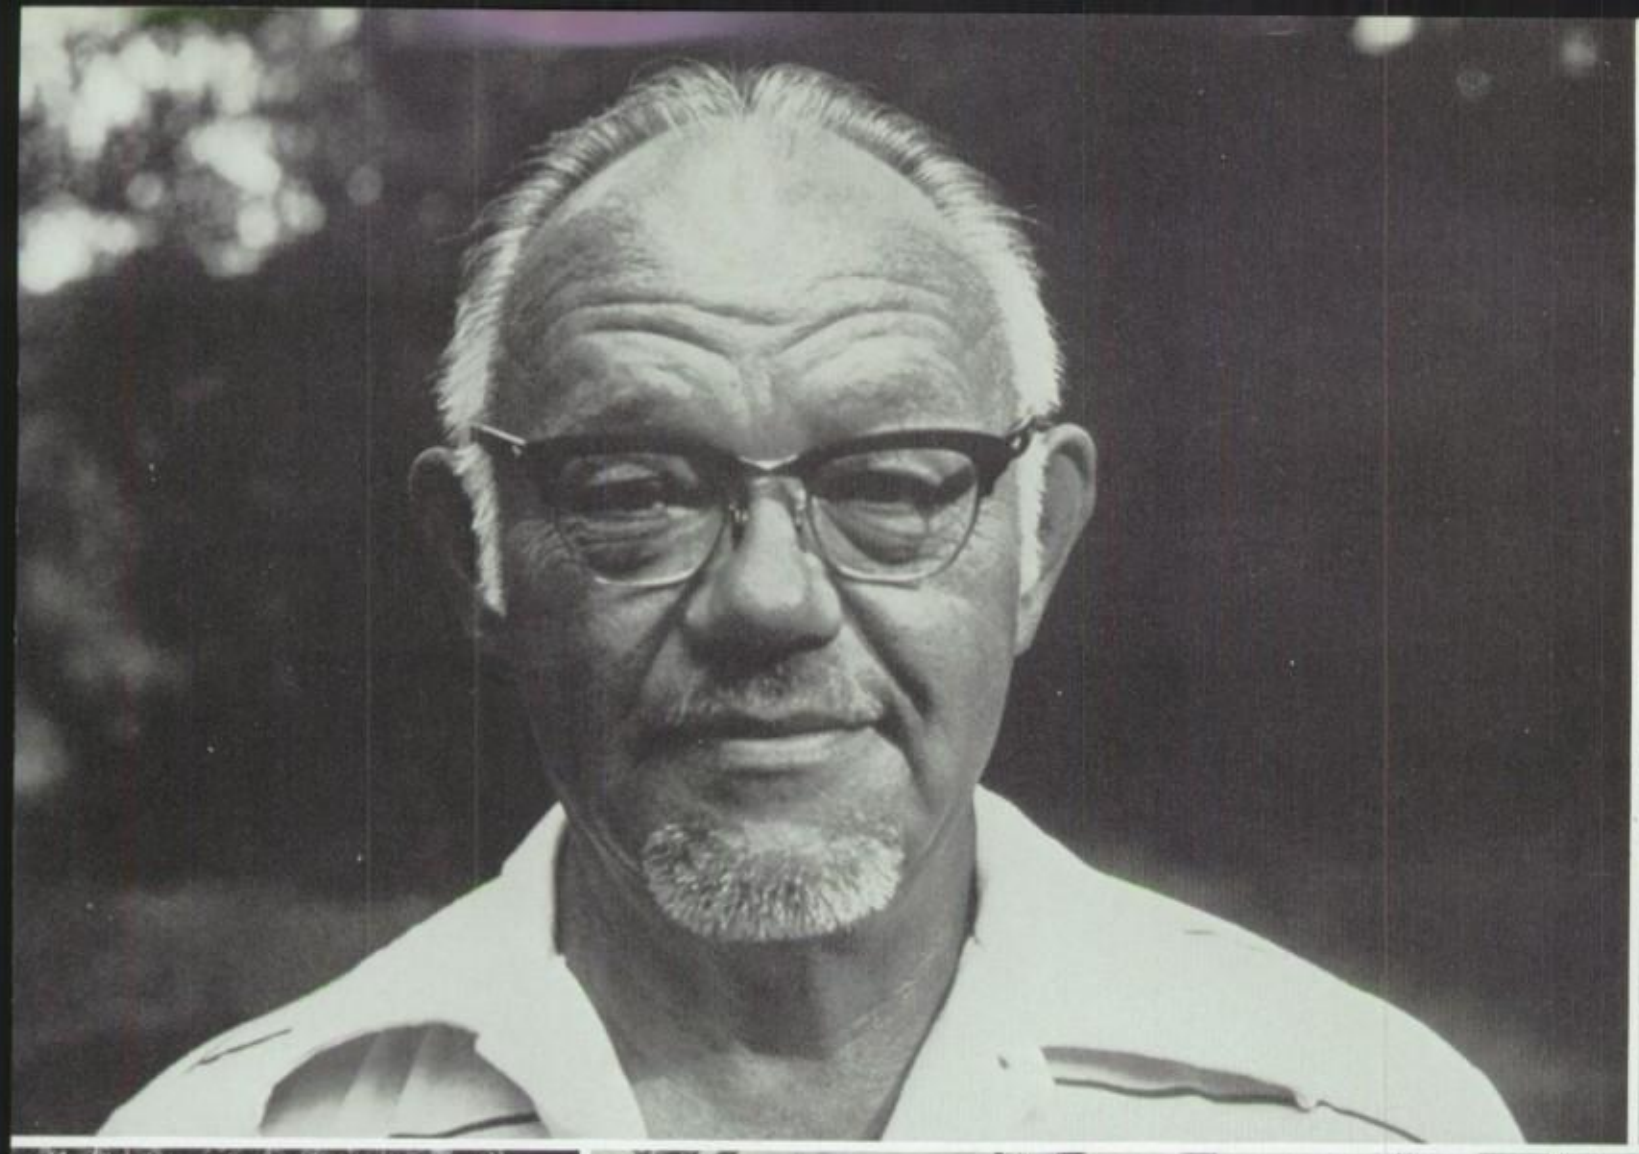
Reuben A. Lehmann

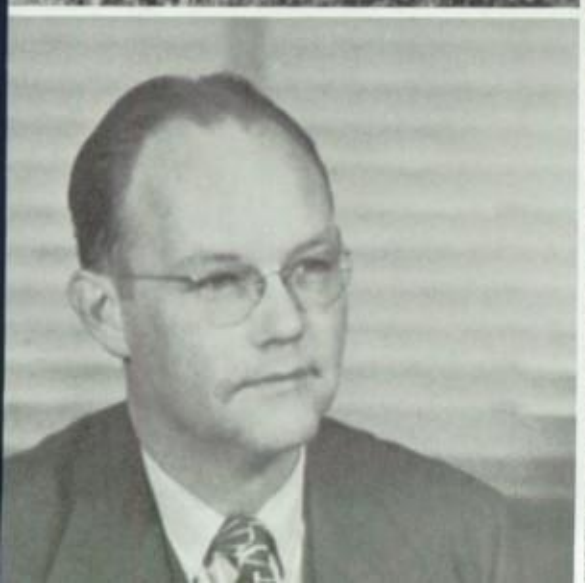
A SALUTE

To our band leader

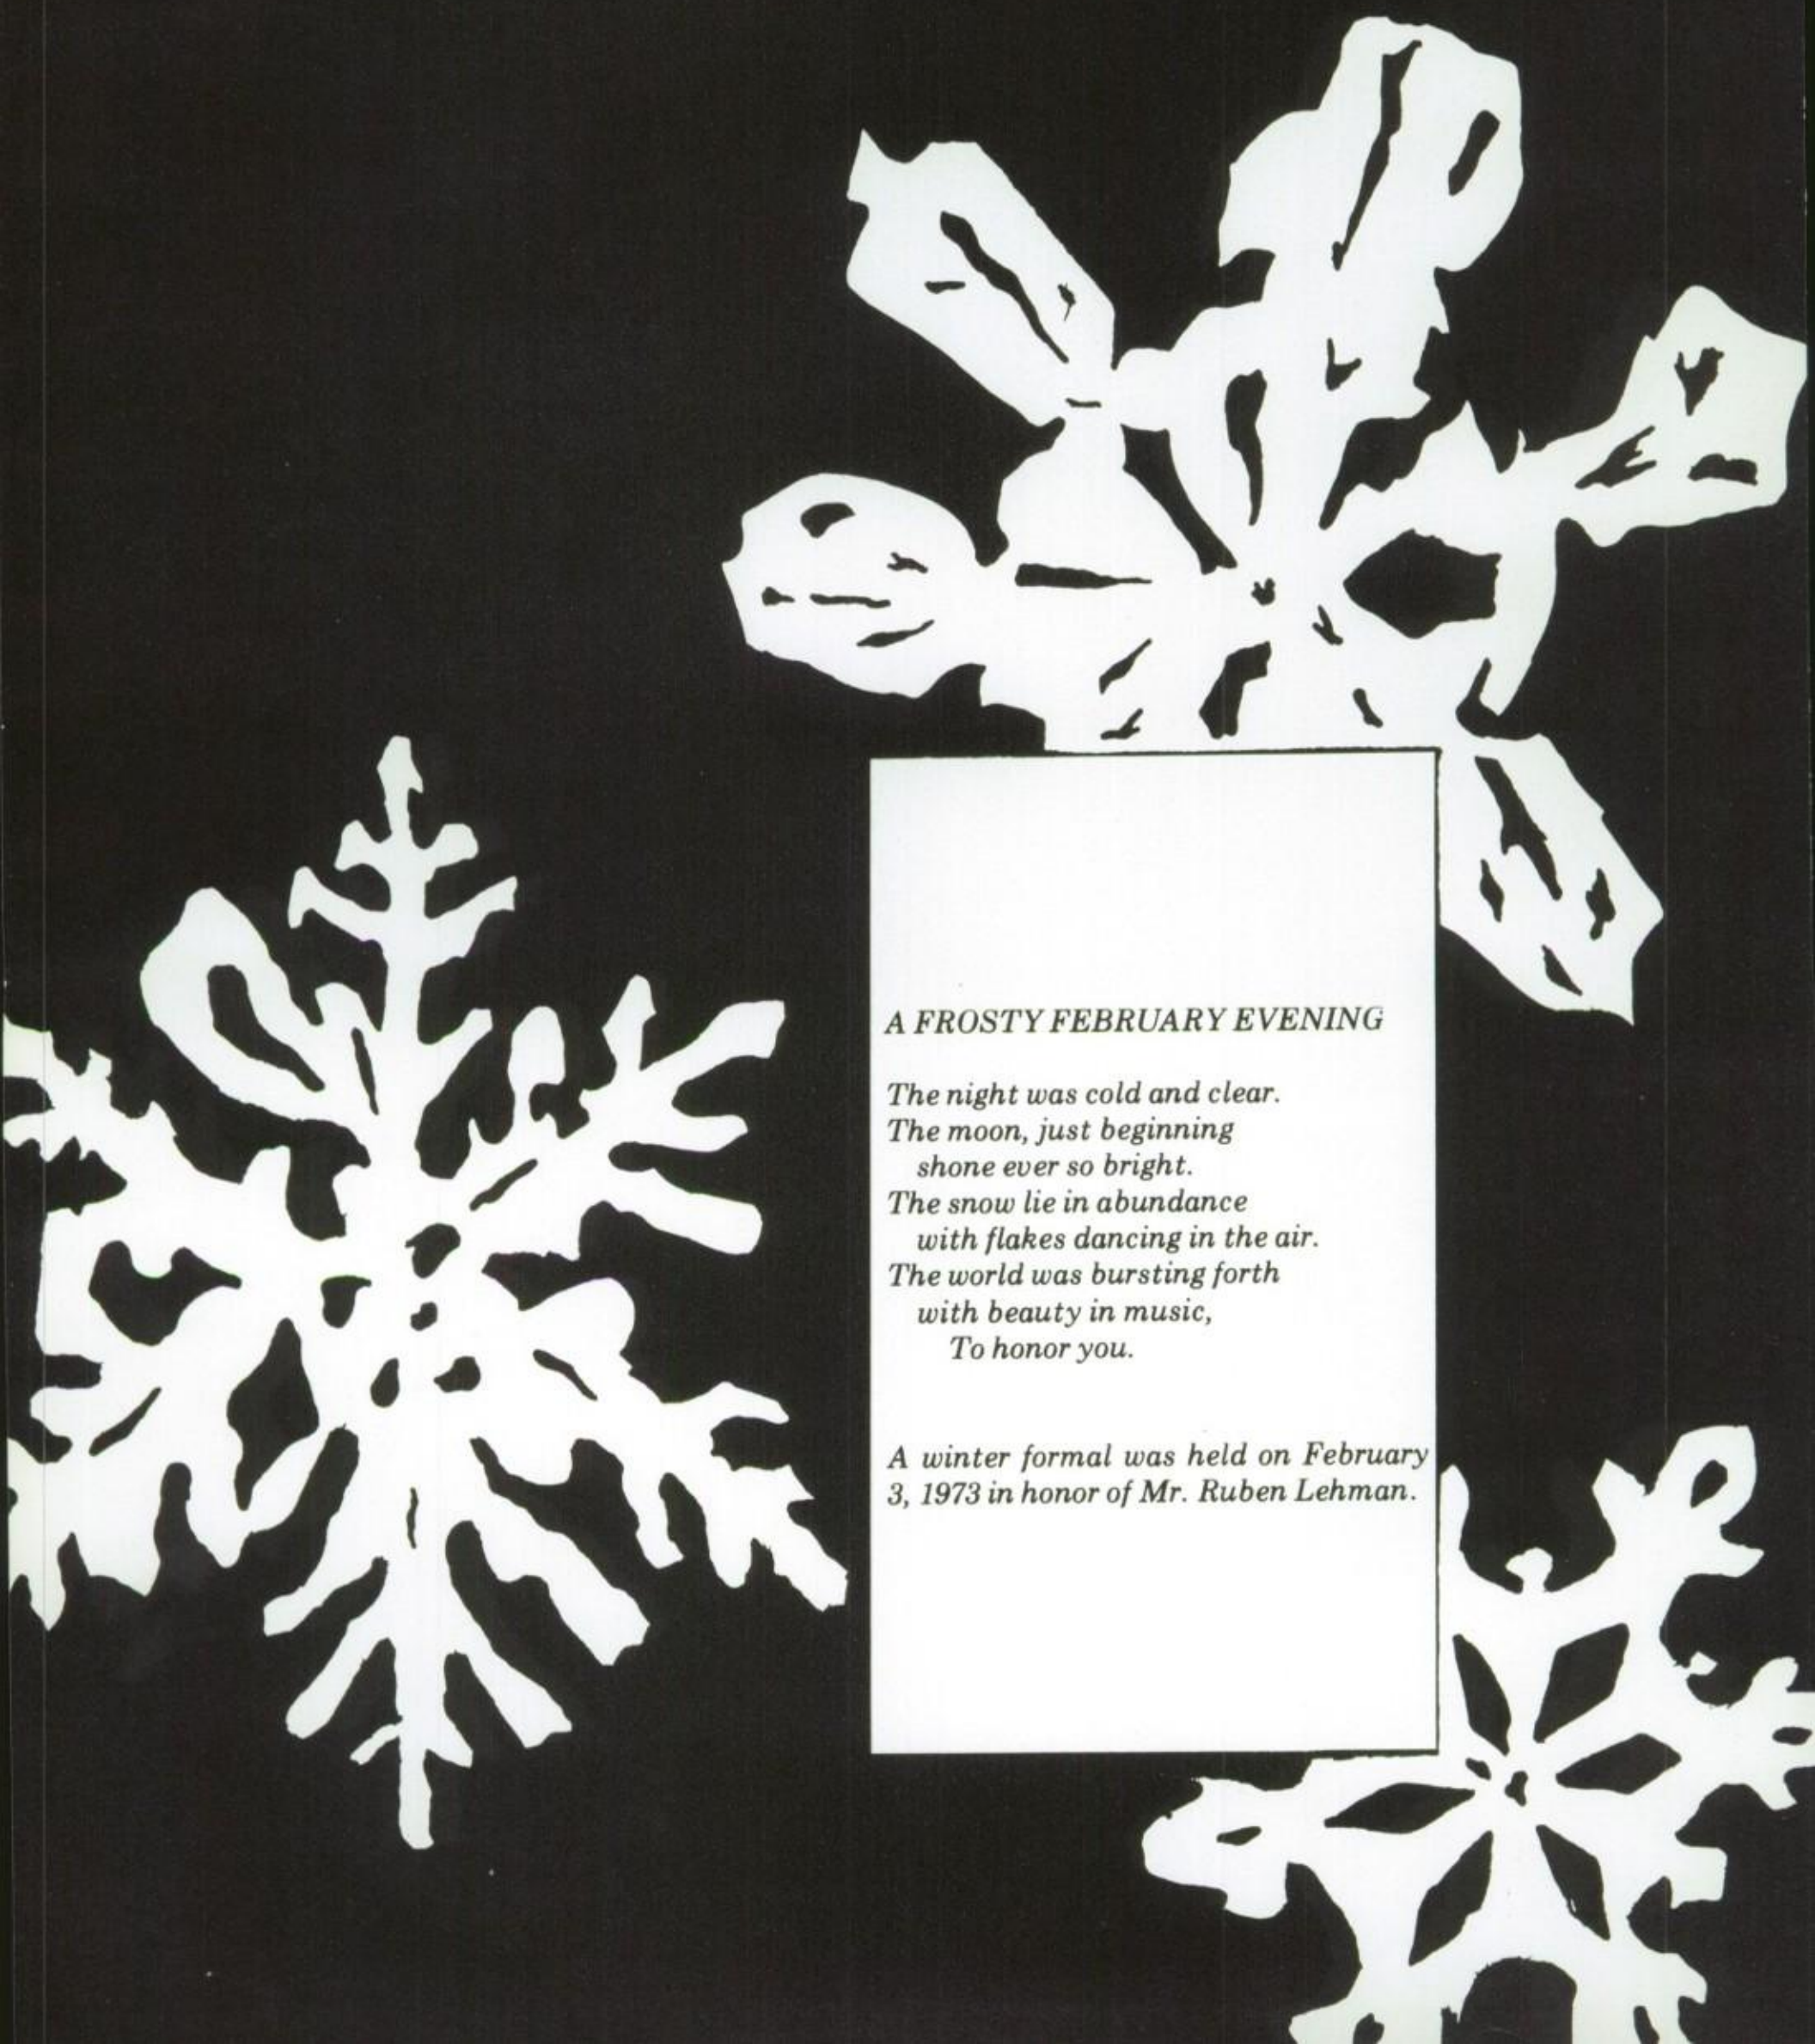
The 1973 Quit Qui Oc would like to honor a man who has completed twenty-nine years of service to Plymouth High School. He is a man who is sincerely dedicated to his profession, but always seems to add humor and remarks at the right time. "Rube" as most everyone calls him, is an exceptional person, both as a teacher and as a friend. We the students of Plymouth High School salute Mr. Ruben Lehman, who will fondly be remembered by all of his students.







A Frosty February Evening



A FROSTY FEBRUARY EVENING

The night was cold and clear.
The moon, just beginning shone ever so bright.
The snow lie in abundance with flakes dancing in the air.
The world was bursting forth with beauty in music,
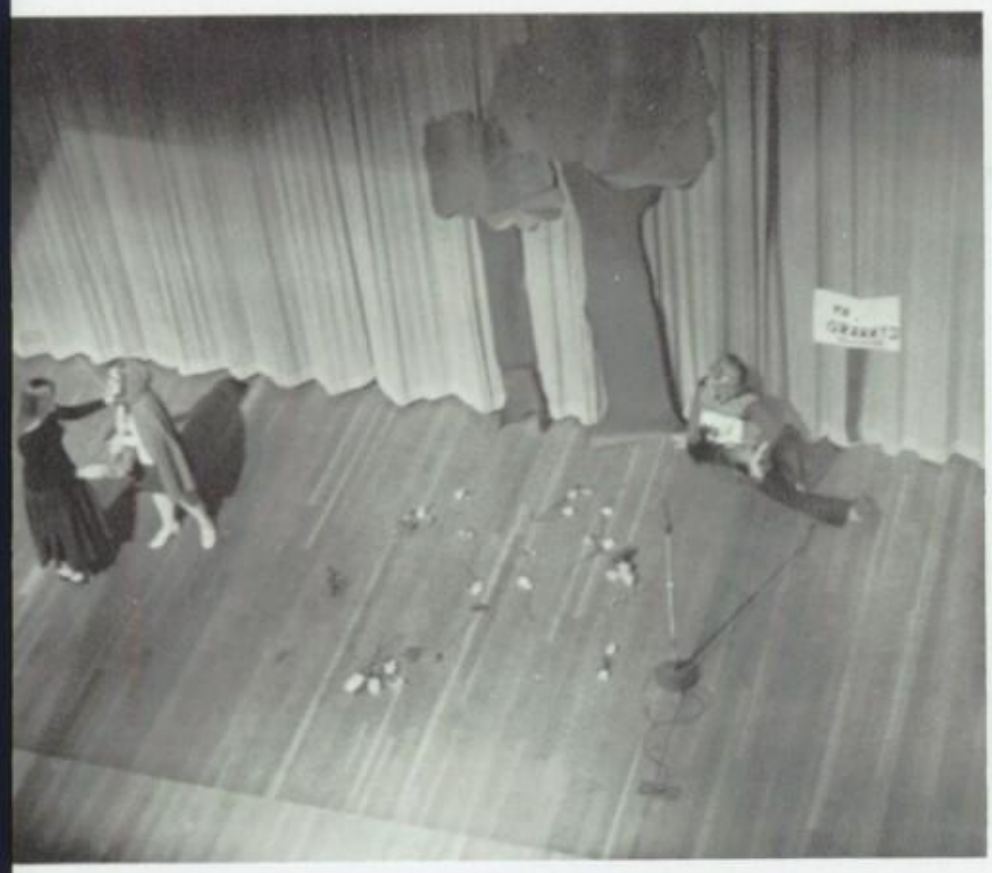
To honor you.

A winter formal was held on February 3, 1973 in honor of Mr. Ruben Lehman.



'Almost Broadway'

On February 20 the Quit Qui Oc staff presented 'Almost Broadway.' The talent show helped to provide funds for this year's annual, of which the cost is about $6,000.

Gary Ferguson, sang a medly of Jean, Shine on America and When Did It Begin.

Kathy Perronne, played a piano solo, "Bumble Boogie".

German club was next with a german version of "Little Red Riding Hood."

Lori Luther, a senior, played some selections on the organ. They were "Misty", "Baby Elephant Walk", "Exodus", "If I Love You" and "Mame".

The Swing Choir sang "Alexander's Rag Time Band", "Shangri La", and "The Red Robin" song.

Dave Sagal, commonly known as "Sag's" sang his once famed "Gary Indiana" from "The Music Man."

Kevin Eggebeen played a selection of popular tunes on his harmonica. The annual staff wishes to thank Kevin for also being their master of ceremonies.

Short skits were performed between the acts, by most of the annual staff. Jeff Watson presented a comedy act entitled "Chicken Heart" from Bill Cosby.

Bad Axe, a group composed of Dick and Face Bennett, Hugo and John Stoll, Tim Hollister and Steve Olchesky presented an exhilerating rock orientation.

A first place prize of $15.00 went to the Swing Choir. Second place of $10.00 went to Bad Axe and third place of $5.00 went to Gary Ferguson.

Judges were Mrs. Lindow, Mr. Ten Haken, Robert Carpenter, Mr. Kulow and Reverend Dawson.

Stretching for Success

The cross country boys did well in 1972 with five returning lettermen and some promising newcomers. They were led to third in conference by senior captain Jeff Mills and most valuable runner Pat Miller. 1973 should be an exceptional year with everyone except Mills returning.

72 was a year of rebuilding for the racketmen. Horicon proved to be the racketmen's favorite team, beating them twice in as many outings. Excluding one graduate the entire team will be back in 73 led by lettermen Pete Wifler, Scott Miller, Bill Siech, and senior captain Dan Bein.

Golf Men

The golf team had an excellent year finishing second only to Kiel in conference. Dave Zingraf was awarded most valuable player and will be returning next year with Tim Weedman, Eric Engsberg, Mike Weedman, Jay Nolte and others. Everyone agrees we should be Number 1 in '73.

This years Homecoming showed to be one of the best PHS has seen. Although the day was overcast and rainy, that didn't stop the Panthers from their 28-0 shutout over Luxemburg-Casco, bringing their conference record to 8-0. The festivities were brought to their peak Thursday night with the crowning of King Bob and Queen Barb, during the pep rally. The thoughts of this 1972 Homecoming will never be forgotten.

HAWKINS

Remember Sadie Hawkins 1972?

When you finally had some way to make him notice you, and when the time came to ask him you were never so scared before in your life! (Now you know how he felt.) When he said yes, you were the happiest person in the world! It came so fast, and before you knew it, you were at his door picking him up. SCARED!

NERVOUS! BOTH!! You weren't the only one who was! How much did it cost? If you were smart you took a skinny guy, a very skinny guy There were a lot of people there. Daisy Mae (Fran) and Lil' Abner (Steve). Did you get married? Of course there was the wedding kiss (it wouldn't be complete without it!)

And the food and the decorations and the band that seemed to change the cafeteria into something else! But it was all over too soon. But you will never forget Sadie Hawkins because you don't want to.

Happy Mary gains honor as November girl

Decembers' Girl of the Month is none other than Barb Huebner! Barb was chosen by the Plymouth Womans' Club and Mr. Richards. Miss Huebner was selected by her scholastic records and also her participation in extra curricular activities.

As a senior, Barb is kept quite busy. She is editor of this newspaper, and that in itself is quite a job! You really don't know how much! Last year, she served as [illegible] of the Hi Lights.

Miss Huebner was selected as the delegate to Badger Girls State this past summer. She currently serves as the Senior Class president, whose duties will be many when graduation time rolls around. Did we hear cheers from some seniors? Barb also is a member of FTA, band and stage band. Last year she was "Mother Goose", the emcee at the annual Kippers show. Miss Huebner also writes articles for the Plymouth Review on many of PHS's activities. Her talent is a great asset to our newspaper, too. Yea, Barb! She also took statistics at all the football games for our school, and is an avid sports fan.

Right now, Barb and Charmaine, the Student Council president, are busy working on a Senior Lounge for the class of '73. They presented their plans to Student Council, but things are at a standstill, so they are looking Charmaine hopes to pursue her future ambitions at either UW-M or Eau Claire after graduation this June.

November's girl of the month is none other than Mary Mugan. Mary was chosen by Mr. Richards on her scholastic record and extra-curricular activities. She will be an honorary member of the Plymouth Women's Club, will attend a meeting, and receive a gift as a token of her honor.

As a senior, Mary keeps pretty busy in her studies. This semester, her courses include Interior Design, Physics, Horticulture, Government and World Affairs. Also on her agenda are Phy. Ed. and Contemporary Lit.

Mary can't wait until next semester when she has Advanced Biology. When asked why, she replied, "It sounds like a lot of fun!". Just wait til she starts dissecting those fetal pigs.

Amid all this, November's girl has some time to herself, too. Her a cheerleader throughout her high school life. Her pep, enthusiasm and talent have earned her the honor of serving as co-captain of varsity football cheerleading.

When pressed to mention her favorite pastime, Mary cited Jerry. "There's always time left for Jerry," [illegible] Muggs plans to continue her educa[illegible] tion after graduation. She hopes to [illegible] attend [illegible] Tech and major in Horticulture, in preparation of attaining her dream of becoming a florist.

This year's activities are keeping busier than ever. She is a member of Pep Club and recently was Homecoming general chairman. (good work, Mary!"). She also serves as the Underclassmen editor of the

Paula Schultz is Girl of Month

Paula has been named a National Merit Semi-finalist as well as being Girl of the Month for the Plymouth Womans Club. Paula is one of 15,000 semi-finalists selected from the 1,500,000 students who took the PSAT-NMSQT test last October to be considered for the 3,000 merit awards to be awarded in 1973. Only about 1% of the students in the country are given this honor.

Paula has received the highest possible score on their tests on two occasions. To be considered for next spring's awards, Paula must be gained for semi-finalists receiving the entire high schools, confirmation, and providing information about their accomplishments and interests.

While in high school, Paula has served as the secretary-treasurer of Science Club in her junior year, and continued her interest in science by participating in a science seminar. This seminar consisted of interested area students, and was also attended last year by Betty Gausmann and Penny Gilligan.

Paula has also been a member of the Guidance Club in Madison, where she receives career advice, visits classes on campus, and this year will talk with a professor about her plans for the future.

GAA, Student Council, Chess Club, Creative Writing Club, AFS, National Honor Society and circulation manager of the Hi-Lights are some more of Paula's many interests.

Paula also attended a Girls Conservation Camp in Wyalusing State Park for a week last summer, as well as being a counselor at Camp Anokijig.

Her interests include needlework, fishing, cooking, reading, the outdoors, traveling and camping.

THE REVIEW

Sheboygan County's big, independent community newspaper

113 E. Mill Street Plymouth, Wis.

The management and employees of Lauer's Super Mart in Plymouth would like to thank you for your loyal patronage for over 50 years of business. We hope that you feel that this is your market . . . because actually it is you, our customers, who have built it into the FINEST COMPLETELY HOME-OWNED AND OPERATED SUPER MARKET in Sheboygan County.

We would like you to know that all of the folks who are employed here use their earnings and profits to help develop the immediate community. None of their salaries or profits leave the state of Wisconsin.

May we again give you our personal "thank you" . . . you more than deserve it! — Joe Abstetar, Deloris Bennet and the Lauer's Super Mart Employees.
